EDUARDO MARTURET

Eduardo Marturet enjoys an active career on three continents; he is the Music Director and CEO of The Miami Symphony Orchestra and continues to guest conduct actively in Europe. He has made more than 60 CDs that range from the Brahms complete symphonic cycle to surveys of Latin America's greatest orchestral composers. European orchestras with which he has had an active guest conducting relationship include Berliner Symphoniker, European Community Chamber Orchestra, Staatsphilharmonie Rheinland-Pfalz, RAI Symphony Orchestra, Danish Radio Symphony, Royal Flemish Philharmonique, Nordwestdeutsche Philharmonie, Gelders Orkest, Bohemian Chamber Philharmonic, Budapest Radio Symphony, Brabant Orkest, and Concertgebouw Chamber Orchestra in Amsterdam. In 2001, he led the Berliner Symphoniker on a 12-concert tour, sponsored by Deutsche Bank, of major South American cities including Caracas, Sao Paulo, Cordoba, Montevideo, Buenos Aires, Mexico City and Monterrey. A documentary of the tour was broadcast through the region by DirecTV.

Marturet has performed with some of the world's most celebrated soloists across a wide range of musical genres, such as Mstislav Rostropovich, Maria João Pires, Barbara Hendricks, Jean-Pierre Rampal, Maurice André, Paul Badura-Skoda, Jaap Van Zweden, Byron Janis, Salvatore Accardo, Aldo Ciccolini, Ivo Pogorelich, Philippe Entremont, Evelyn Glennie, Fazil Say, Alirio Diaz and Angel Romero.

He has also crossed into the worlds of jazz and popular music, conducting with greats like Arturo Sandoval, as well as iconic performers Dione Warwick, Gloria Estefan, Cheo Feliciano, Carlos Santana, The Wailers and Rita Moreno. His versatility and artistry have made him a sought-after conductor on the global stage, bridging the classical and contemporary music worlds with grace and innovation.

Born in Caracas, Marturet studied in Cambridge, England where he became firmly rooted in the European tradition, obtaining a degree in Piano, Percussion, Composition and Conducting which he studied with Brian Thomas, Franco Ferrara and John Carewe.

In 1979, he returned to Venezuela with a permanent position with the Orquesta Filarmónica de Caracas as Associate Conductor and later as Artistic Director to the Orquesta Sinfónica Venezuela, where he served in that position until 1995. Currently, he maintains a strong connection with the Venezuelan National Youth Orchestra movement (EL SISTEMA), providing guidance and support to underprivileged children. In January 2025 he was named Honorary Artistic Director of the Orquesta Sinfónica Simón Bolívar by Music Director Gustavo Dudamel and El Sistema's Executive Director, Eduardo Mendez.

With the opening of the Teresa Carreño Theatre in Caracas in 1984, Marturet became its first Music Director. After three years of bringing challenging and original productions to the stage, he resigned from the Theatre to dedicate himself entirely to an international career, conducting in Italy, Greece, France, Spain, England, Denmark, Holland, Korea, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Czechoslovakia, Belgium, Canada and the United States.

He made his Asian debut with the Seoul Philharmonic in 2003, a year when he also opened the Chorin Summer Festival in Berlin and made his debut with the Buenos Aires Philharmonic in Argentina and the Florida Philharmonic in Miami. In 2006, Maestro Marturet received a Latin Grammy nomination in the category of Best Classical Album, for conducting the Berliner Symphoniker in "Encantamento."

Since 2006 he has been the Music Director and CEO of the Miami Symphony Orchestra, during his 20 year tenure Maestro Marturet has taken MISO into the world-class professional symphony of Miami developing a unique classical- crossover repertoire in alliance with great producers such as Emilio Estefan, Rudy Perez and Burt Bacharach.

In October 2012, he was named one of the "100 most influential latinos in Miami". The ceremony was performed by Fusionarte Association, Pan-American Foundation and Televisa publishing. This same year, in March, the flag of the United States was flown over the U.S. Capitol in honor of Eduardo Marturet, who received the Medal of Merit of the U.S. Congress in recognition for his outstanding and invaluable service to the community.

In 2014, Maestro Eduardo Marturet was selected as a Steinway Artist, a distinguished list of musicians that includes classical pianists like Lang Lang, jazz stars like Diana Krall, pop icons like Billy Joel, and "immortals" like Irving Berlin, Cole Porter, Sergei Rachmaninoff, and Arthur Rubinstein. In 2018, The Miami Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Maestro Marturet, paid homage to the memory of Zaha Hadid, ARCHITECT – ARTIST – THINKER (b. 1950 in Baghdad, Iraq; d. 2016 in Miami, USA) with the premiere of his composition @Zaha's Place, a meditation on sound and space.

In 2019, was inducted into the Genius 100 Visions Group, "an active and engaged community of 100 exceptionally imaginative and impactful human beings. Genius 100 brings accomplished and compassionate minds together to re-imagine the future – and to implement creative initiatives to improve it.

The organization is inspired by Albert Einstein's words: "A new type of thinking is essential if mankind is to survive and move toward higher levels," and it includes world renown luminaries like US Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, architect Frank Gehry, and conductor Zubin Mehta, all great visionaries [who] raise the bar on what is achievable within their fields. Collectively, in collaboration, they can make the impossible possible.

That same year, he conducted the recording session of the Miami Symphony Orchestra's soundtrack television series from Telemundo "La Reina del Sur"

Season Two who won a 2020 International Emmy for Non-English Language US Primetime Program. The creation of the soundtrack for the series second season was the result of the partnership between himself, and Marcos Santana, President of Telemundo Global Studios, who was also Show-runner and Executive Producer of the series.

Marturet was part of a historic event that took place on Sunday, Mar. 14, Einstein's birthday, when Astronaut Dr. Soichi Noguchi (JAXA, Japan Exploration Agency) was inducted as a Genius 100 Visionary. During this historic event, Planet 9, an opus Maestro Marturet composed exclusively to be performed in space, was performed for this occasion. Marturet and many other Genius 100 Visionaries took part in this once-in-a-lifetime experience.

More recently, on July 4th, 2022, Mayor Francis Suárez from the City of Miami proclaimed MISO as the official symphony orchestra of the city of Miami. Marturet received the proclamation in a multitudinary event, with more than 10,000 people present at the Peacock Park in Coconut Grove.

Recordings

In addition to the 30 albums made with the Berliner Symphoniker, there are also those made with the Radio Budapest Symphony Orchestra, Brabant Orkest, the Amsterdam Concertgebouw Chamber Orchestra, the Bohemian Chamber Philharmonic, Stavanger Symphony, the Czech Chamber Philharmonic and the Miami Symphony Orchestra.

Eduardo Marturet has been a Steinway artist since 2014.

Eduardo Marturet has renewed his contract with the Miami Symphony Orchestra until 2032.

MISO BRINGS EL SISTEMA TO SOUTH FLORIDA WITH THE PARTNERSHIP WITH SHELTON ACADEMY

AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAM OF MUSIC

inspired by the highly successful model of “El Sistema” from Venezuela

Almost two years ago, on August 26, 2021, the Miami Symphony Orchestra and its Music Director & Conductor Eduardo Marturet announced the new partnership with “EL SISTEMA” from Venezuela, to create a new and innovative music education platform never seen before in South Florida. Eduardo Marturet, MISO Music Director & Conductor, and the family of the late and loved Maestro Jose Antonio Abreu, along with Eduardo Méndez, Executive Director of EL SISTEMA from Venezuela, named the program: “EL SISTEMA - MISO Music Education Program José A. Abreu” honoring the creator of one of the most innovative and effective learning programs in the history of music. The Miami Symphony Orchestra is the only organization officially appointed by EL SISTEMA/VENEZUELA to further expand this unique music education program in South Florida.

We have started the EL SISTEMA program with our new partnership with Shelton Academy, available to all children of the City of Doral. Shelton will become the first school to be part of EL SISTEMA program in South Florida, and aspire to open more locations in South Florida in the coming years.

Don't miss this chance to be part of the new generation of musicians, following in the footsteps of an inspiring tradition!
